

AO VET Asia Pacific Board Member – Community Development Commission

Job description

AO VET seeks:	A highly motivated individual of regional repute and excellent scientific and clinical recognition. The applicant needs to be able to work in a multi-cultural environment with no regional travel restrictions. They are expected to have the vision to contribute to the entire AO VET organization and to help us set new standards and position AO VET as a global leader in musculoskeletal veterinary surgery. AO VET is now seeking nominations and reapplications for the following position:
Position available	A member of the AO VET Asia Pacific (AP) Board with a particular focus on community development for a 3-year term; this role will act also as a member of the AO VET Community Development Commission According to our terms of reference, and to properly reflect the cultural diversity of the region, not more than two Board members are permitted from the same country (as determined by place of work rather than nationality), unless there are exceptional circumstances. This includes the Chair of the Board.
Territory	Regional
Reporting to	AO VET Asia Pacific Regional Board Chairperson (solid line) AND to the AO VET Community Development Commission Chair (dotted line)
Term ¹	3 years (as outlined above), renewable for a second term ¹
Start date	July 1, 2025
End date	June 30, 2028
Requirements	General mandatory requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Veterinary surgeon in active clinical practice in the Asia Pacific Region• AO VET Faculty; involved in at least one teaching event as Course Active Chair or Faculty in the last three years (table instructors and others who did not give any lectures are excluded)• Faculty Education Program (FEP) completed• Motivated to shape the future of AO VET

¹ Current Board members can apply for one more term in case they are in their first term. Any re-election shall follow the same procedure and rules as a regular election. If the person nominated for re-election is the only candidate, a 75% majority vote by the overall electorate is required. Both terms must be back-to-back without intervening time off.

- Regional reputation and excellent interpersonal skills
- Good/clear communicator with the ability to work in multi-cultural environments
- Good command of the English language - equivalent to / greater than a proficiency level of 3 (General Professional Proficiency) as described in the Interagency Language Roundtable Language Skill Level Descriptions; see details under: <https://www.govtilr.org/Skills/ILRscale2.htm>)
- Prepared to spend the equivalent of an average of 1 day per month on AO VET affairs
- Team player who can work together with others to achieve common goals
- Willing and prepared to travel regionally and internationally (no exclusions)
- Active AO VET member of a minimum of 12 months current and continuous duration

Community Development related

- A flair for defining current trends in online media, demonstrated ability to create and deliver engaging content for online and social media platforms
- An interest in marketing and being an ambassador for the AO VET network including being a Key Opinion Leader or “influencer”, an online and membership promoter

General desired requirements

- International experience (e.g. fellowship, faculty or research travel)
- Recognized member or officer of a key national, regional, or international veterinary association(s)
- Prior leadership experience in university or veterinary practice management and/or other business operations (e.g. industry consultant, practice owner/operator, department lead)

Responsibilities

- Be a member of the AO VET AP Board AND the AO VET Community Development Commission
- Ensure that the objectives of the AO VET AP Board and the Community Development Commission are achieved by fulfilling the duties of these bodies
- Protect the best interests of the AO VET AP Board as well as the Community Development Commission
- Deliver content online and to social media platforms in the region on a regular basis
- Act in compliance with the bylaws and regulations of the AO Foundation
- Comply with the AO Code of Ethics and Shared values
- Closely collaborate with the members of the Asia Pacific Board, the Community Development Commission and the AO VET management staff toward fulfillment of the tasks of these bodies.

- Closely collaborate with the members of the Community Development Commission as a delegate of the Asia Pacific Board.
- Attend, participate in, and contribute to efficient & effective AO VET Asia Pacific Board as well and Community Development Commission meetings
- Prepare all necessary contributions and documentation connected therewith
- Ensure timely, fair, and transparent succession planning within the AO VET Asia Pacific Board and the Community Development Commission
- To help implement resolutions and actions of the AO VET Asia Pacific Board as well as the Community Development Commission
- Report on the activities of the AO VET Community Development commission to the AO VET Asia Pacific Board
- Avoid conflict of interest in all interactions